

“new video art from china” by Leng Lin

Mar. 28 - 30, 2003

Friday 28th, 7.30 pm: lecture by Leng Lin and videoscreening

Saturday 29th, 10 am - 20 pm: videoscreening

Play is proud to be able to see the contemporary video art scene in china through and with his eyes. He will present the works three days in the gallery and will be there to answer questions and provides his know how to visitors of the screening. The gallery is proud to present a speech of his on Friday about contemporary Chinese video.

Leng Lin is one of the leading curators in contemporary Chinas art and culture scene. He is one of the most influential communicators and promoters of Chinese contemporary art in Europe and the States. He teaches as an associate professor of art theory and history at the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences in Beijing. He worked with many of the world famous artist from china in various shows and wrote about Chinese art in various international publications.